Davis,

This just in from Gravity. It s a liability waiver they require for all visitors to sign before boarding their vessels.

At this time, we expect to be using Gravity s vessels beginning March 28 for the indoctrination.

Ken:

Gravity will require EPA observers (and all visitors) to sign a liability waiver for working on their vessels. EPA may wish to have their legal team review this before having observers sign. Can you forward to Davis Zhen and request that, if needed.

Thanks-
Jenny
